HENRY WINS AS SHERIFF BY 31 VOTES OVER WALKER

About Half Vote Compared With the November, 1920; Rest of County Ticket No Opposition

The three elections held Thursday failed to interest the voters to such an extent as to bring out much over half a vote as compared with the November election, 1920, when the total vote of the county was 2,084. In the regular election for county officers the vote was 1,063. In the republican primary the total vote was 485 as against 1,485 for Harding for president in 1920. In the Democratic primary the total vote was 413 as against 558 for Cox for president in 1920.

There was no disturbance at any point in the county so far as the Chronicle has been able to learn.

The contest that was on between Sheriff G. W. Walker and J. H. Henry proved to be a mild affair, but resulted in the election of Henry by 31 votes.

The election of two constables in the first district developed some interest. There were three candidates who were voted for at six precincts. The candidates were Henry Turner, E. W. Grissom and D. W. Swicegood. The following brief table shows the vote by precincts:

	Tur.	Gris.	Swi.
Crossville	142	146	72
Creston	28	11	12
Dorton	10	8	11
Pleasant Hill	36	37	17
Clifty	5	6	2
Pomona	10	14	7

Totals.....231 222 131

There was one other contest that developed considerable activity, the race for justice of the peace to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of R. A. Powel, in the third district. There were three candidates: G. W. Davenport, T. L. Hale and Austin Bristow. They were voted for at four precincts as shown by the following table with the results indicated.

	Day.	Bris.	Hale
Grassy Cove	47	27	0
Burke	42	4	13
Linary	32	0	8
Jewett	7	8	0

Totals.....128 39 21

James Stone was elected constable in the Fifth district, receiving 31 votes at Vandever and 33 at Burgess, making his total vote 64. In the Third district Will Renfro received 9 at Grassy Cove and the same at Linary and was elected. In the Second district Isaac Barringer received 23 votes at Isoline and was elected over Major Swafford, who received 19 votes at Forest Hill. In the Fourth district Jack Vitae received 1 vote at Crab Orchard and L. D. Brown 1 vote at Hebbertsburg and as they were the only candidates and only received one vote each there was no election. We have not learned as yet whether or not there will be a runoff. (?)

The most noticeable slump in the vote of any precinct was at Crab Orchard where the polls were not opened until afternoon and the total vote was only 24 as against a vote of 207 in the April Republican primary. It is now claimed that the failure to open the polls until late was not due entirely to lack of interest in the election, but was so arranged by design in order to lose votes for J. H. Henry, candidate for sheriff against Sheriff G. W. Walker; the vote as polled would seem to indicate that there is some truth in the charge, since Henry received 16 out of the 24 votes polled.

At Daysville no election was held at all. In the April Republican primary 83 votes were polled at Daysville. All other precincts in the county held an election; at some points there were no primary elections held. Sheriff Walker has filed a request with the election commissioners for a re-count of the tickets, but whether or not he makes any special charges as to fraud or irregularities at any particular precincts we have been unable to learn as G. W. Davenport is at his home in Grassy Cove and Litton Thurman is out of town on a camping trip for a few days. Upon making inquiries of friends of Sheriff Walker we are led to the conclusion that after more mature consideration of the situation he is not likely to press the matter as there is no known evidence of fraud or attempted wrong doing.

Following is the vote of the several county officers by precincts.

OPENING UP A GOOD FARM 2 MILES NORTH OF TOWN

S. W. Rose Building Six-Room House and Clearing 50 Acres of Land.

Last week the editor of the Chronicle had the pleasure of visiting the new farm that is being developed by S. W. Rose two miles north of Crossville.

Mr. Rose has 116 acres of as smooth laying land as can be found in any prairie country, he has 12 acres cleared now and hopes to make it 50 acres by spring. The land slopes gradually to what is known as the Bently meadow and embraces from 35 to 40 acres of that meadow. It joins the farm of Jas Smith and Frank March.

Mr. Rose is just now completing a very convenient six-room residence, digging a well and will shortly begin building a good barn. Much of the timber has been cut from the tract years ago thus many of the stumps are rotted and ready to be removed with small effort.

The land was purchased from the Phillipsburg Land Company and the company has agreed to open a road 40 feet wide running north to the intersection of the Genesis road and coming south and pass out to the Memphis-to-Bristol highway near the residence of Trustee T. F. Brown. When that road is opened up, which it will be done this fall and winter, it will not be over a mile and a half from the residence of Mr. Rose to the court house.

In no country can land be found that lays finer than this tract. It has a very gradual slope to the north and takes in a considerable portion of the Bently meadow. Mr. Rose plans to have some 15 or 20 acres of the meadow plowed, limed and put to rye this fall. All in all it presents one of the most attractive pieces of property in the county.

Derrick Farm.
Adjoining the farm of Mr. Rose on the west is 50 acres owned by W. H. Derrick that is just as favorably located as that of Mr. Rose and the general lay of the land is practically the same. It also takes in a portion of the Bently meadow. Mr. Derrick is now putting up a splendid barn and will build a residence this winter. He is clearing several acres which he will put into cultivation next year.

Republican Primary.

Out of 21 precincts elections were held at 14. The total vote in the republican primary was 486, as against 1766 in the April republican primary. Following are the precincts where no election was held: Mayland, Clifty, Dorton, Crab Orchard, Daysville, Ozone, Flat Rock.

Following is the total vote cast in the county for the several candidates in the Republican primary:
GOVERNOR—A. A. Taylor 442.
CONGRESS—Clouse, 418.

NEW COUNCIL FORMED IN NASHVILLE LAST WEEK

Knights and Ladies Order of the Cross Starts off With 200 in Capitol City.

A council of the Knights and Ladies Order of the Cross was organized here Thursday night with 200 members by Senator Geo. W. Poague, supreme commander, and founder of the order.

The ritual was exemplified and was pronounced by every one present as most beautiful. It is a dramatization of Constantine's vision of the Cross in the skies just prior to the last great conflict between Paganism and Christianity.

The K. and L. of the Cross is a fraternal beneficial society and issues a certificate based upon the national fraternal congress table of mortality.

The following officers were elected and installed: Senator Dan E. McGugin, past commander; R. G. Messier, commander; C. N. Eberhardt, vice-commander; John Trotwood Moore, prelate; L. H. Ferguson, secretary; Mrs. O. Harris, treasurer; E. E. McGarr, guide; Finley M. Dorris, Leon B. McQuiddy and Frank Thomas, trustees; H. C. Hicks, inner guard; R. B. Ashley, outer guard; Drs. A. L. Erwin and J. D. Goodwin, physicians. A full degree team was appointed and installed with the officers.

Regular meetings will be held every Thursday night at Red Men's Hall 307½ Union street, under the supervision of L. H. Ferguson, deputy supreme commander.—Tennessean.

It will be seen by the above clipping from the Nashville Tennessean that he has been meeting with splendid success with his new order in the capitol city. Senator Poague informs us that several other cities of the state are being actively worked in the interest of the order and that the outlook for the order generally is very flattering.

Capt. T. F. Peck, Commissioner of Agriculture, who is just now erecting a handsome residence here in Crossville, has recently become a member of the executive committee of the Supreme Council Knights and Ladies Order of the Cross.

C. E. Keyes has also become Supreme Attorney of the order and will look after its interests in a legal way. Supreme Commander George W. Poague was here last week for a brief stay looking after the interests of the order and left Saturday for points in East Tennessee on an organizing tour.

U. S. SENATOR—Sanders 300;

Democratic Primary.

Twenty out of twenty-one precincts were designated for holding the democratic primary, but elections were held at only 14 precincts with a total vote of 503.

Following is the total vote of each candidate in the democratic primary:

GOVERNOR—Gwinn, 1; McMillin,

338; Hannah, 93; Peay, 32.

U. S. SENATOR—Fitzhugh, 30; Mc-

No candidate for Floater.

OVER THE STATE

Tom C. Rye, former governor, was nominated for chancellor in the eighth division by over 7,000. He carried eight counties out of eleven.

Newell Sanders was nominated for United States senator by the republicans over Harry Anderson, of Memphis.

Senator K. D. McKellare is nominated over Gus T. Fitzhugh by a majority that seems likely to be between 40,000 and 50,000.

Austin Peay is nominated by the democrats for governor with Benton McMillin second and Harvey Hannah third.

Gov. A. A. Taylor was unopposed will be the candidate in November.

In the first congressional district Congressman Reece had a regular run away with his two opponents, winning by 10,000.

Congressman Taylor, in the second district defeated Chancellor John Jennings by around 6,000. Both men were

ANOTHER BANK ASSURED FOR CROSSVILLE SOON

Have Capital Stock of $25,000, Erect Modern Building and Purchase Latest Model Safe.

Citizens of Crossville and the county have definitely decided to establish another bank in Crossville. So far has the project proceeded that all the capital stock has been subscribed and those who are behind the movement claim they could easily have secured $50,000 had they desired.

Following are a few of those interested: G. E. Harrison, W. T. Hudson, J. R. Mitchell, T. E. Wilson, J. C. Kemmer, J. A. Kemmer, G. M. Martin, and numerous others over the county. A meeting will be held Saturday to organize, determine on the location of the building for the bank and such other details as may be necessary to be considered at once. While no definite plans have been fully matured, it seems probable that a burglar proof safe of the latest type will be secured a new brick building be erected and an effort made to open for business within 30 to 60 days.

G. E. Harrison has arranged for the purchase of the corner lot on Main street adjoining and north of Jackson Brother's Grocery store. The deed has not passed yet but the deal is expected to be closed within a few days as the price has been agreed upon. The property belongs to Ben Smith, who is conducting an extensive lumber business in Fentress county, which may delay the arrival of the papers a few days. Mr. Harrison has intimated that he will turn the lot over to the bank at cost should the bank desire to build on it. The location is most admirable as it is one of the best business corners in town. After the meeting of the subscribers of the stock of the new bank Saturday more will be known relative to the location of the home of the new bank.

from Campbell county. Taylor carried every county in the division.

HOUK DEFEATED.

John C. Houk, of Knoxville, was defeated for the state senatorial nomination by I. O. Remine, of Loudon, in the sixth district composed of four counties. Remine carried three out of the four counties. Houk carried Knox county by a small majority, the vote being Houk 2,331; Remine, 2,178.

NOMINATE DEAD CONGRESSMAN

In the seventh congressional district, Lemuel Padgett was nominated for congress over his opponent W. C. Salmon. The strange part of it is that Congressman Padgett died in Washington city the day before the primary. It is generally understood that votes cannot be counted for a dead man. The dead Congressman carried the district by about 600 votes.

State Chairman Nelson Fisher has given out the statement that the state democratic committee will decide Aug. 23, whether or not a special election be called to determine the successor to Mr. Padgett. Mr. Fisher stated that the committee might possibly designate the successor to Mr. Padgett.

WOMEN FOR REGISTER.

Four women won for register. In Roane, Rhea, Morgan and a democratic woman in Claybourne county.

R. L. Burnett, of Chattanooga, is nominated for congress in the third district by the republicans. Joe Brown who defeated the late Judge John A. Moon in 1920, declined to run again as did his father many years ago. The honor Burnett has won is regarded as an empty one as the democratic nominee is regarded a safe winner because of the large democratic majority.

In Rhea county the democrats elected all county officers, except circuit court clerk, which was won by Lud Parham, a son of the late J. F. Parham who was for sixteen years circuit court clerk of this county. Parham won in the republican primary by only one vote; he won his election by 17 votes.

Miss Alice Robinson, of Oklahoma, has been renominated for congress in spite of her attitude towards the bonus and certain maternity bills that have come before congress during her first term. She was strongly opposed by the woman's organization of Oklahoma.

In Missouri, Senator James A. Reed, has won his nomination over Breckenridge Long, who was in the presidential cabinet during the Wilson administration. Mr. Wilson wrote a letter denouncing Reed and the strongest man in the state, it was claimed, had been pitted against Reed in the hope of compassing his defeat. Senator Reed was a bitter foe to the league of

CHAUTAUQUA TO BEGIN TOMORROW NIGHT, 7:45

Dont Fail to Attend First Night to Get Idea of What is Coming.

The Southern Chautauqua will open for its first nights entertainment tomorrow and the public will have an excellent chance to learn if it is of the fine and entertaining character that it is represented to be.

Tomorrow night there will be an abundance of music followed by a lecture. The next night there will be a grand concert by a splendid male quartette. Everyone may expect much that is laughable as well as the grave and gay. The third night will be taken up by the Gerhardt Entertainers, a company of splendid ability comprising a program full of rich and entertaining things. A lecture: "The Joy of the Job" will follow the entertainment.

The fourth night will be given the splendid play: "It Pays to Advertise" This play has had a run of many nights in the large cities and is regarded as one of the side-splitting plays of the country. If you come you will be sure to have many good laughs. It consists of three acts, everyone of which is full of humorous incidents.

The fifth night will be devoted to the Junior Pageant; "The Toy Shop" followed by the wonderful piano-acordian concert by Pietro. After that comes the lecture: "The Measure of the Man." All available information leads us to feel that this Chautauqua need not be classed with the poor affair we had last year. The best test of its merit is to go the first night and see. Season tickets for adults $2.00; children $1.00; single admissions .50

STATE COMMITTEEMEN.

Norma Masa, of Cookeville, and Sam Pickering, of Gallatin, were elected state committeemen from this district by the republican primary Thursday. Jas. N. Cox, of Cookeville, and J. T. Baskerville, of Gallatin, were chosen by the democrats.

L. & N. DEPOT BURNED.

A fire that raged for three hours Sunday afternoon at Knoxville destroyed the L. & N. Railroad freight depot and caused a loss of $500,000. Work on erecting a new depot began Monday. The fire was supposed to be the work of firebugs. An investigation is in progress.

BAD RAIL WRECK.

Failure of an engineer to heed a block signal caused a wreck on the Missouri Pacific near Sulphur Springs Saturday. Known dead 36, seriously injured 138.

VOTE FOR STATE SENATOR

In this senatorial district there are seven counties, but we have not been able to learn the vote of each county. Following is the vote so far as we are able to learn. The count is not given will increase the vote of former Senator Tollett.

nations.

In Oklahoma and Kansas candidates favorable to the return of light wines and beer ran far behind, each receiving many votes less than was expected. In both instances the lowest vote of any of the candidates.

In the ninth Virginia district, so long represented by Congressman Slep, he declined to become a candidate and another republican was nominated in his place.

In Oklahoma, the Klu Klux Klan made a bold stand in the election and were badly defeated.

ANSWERS LAST "HELLO" CALL

Dr. Alexander Graham Bell, the inventor of the telephone, died in the little village of Baddeck, Nova Scotia, last week and the remains were laid to rest on top of a mountain just at sunset. He was 75 years of age. Every telephone in the United States and Canada was silent for one minute at the hour the body was lowered into the grave.
